

Junta de Andalucía

Consejería de Turismo, Cultura y Deporte
Fundación Pública Andaluza Barenboim-Said

The Barenboim-Said Foundation seeks a violinist or violist to teach in Ramallah (Palestine) from October 2023 until June 2024. The applicants should meet the following requirements:

- University degree in classical music.
- Teaching experience.
- Experience as soloist in chamber groups or symphony orchestras.
- Fluent in English.

Knowledge of Arabic would be an asset.

Description of professional services:

The Barenboim-Said Foundation seeks an accomplished performer and teacher to render his/her services as a teacher for young musicians in Palestine, as well as organizing and performing concerts. The applicant shall reside in Ramallah during the academic year. The applicant shall give individual violin and viola lessons starting at beginner level to children and youth. The applicant shall cooperate with the rest of the instrument teachers. The applicant shall prepare yearly exams and participate in student evaluation and meetings. The applicant shall support the students and the Barenboim-Said Music Centre in development towards excellence in music and he/she shall be motivated and flexible.

The Project:

The Barenboim-Said Foundation is a public foundation based in Seville (Spain). Among other activities, the Foundation develops a music education project in Palestine which includes individual instrumental lessons, choir lessons and the organization of orchestral workshops and concerts.

A contract for rendering education services from October 2023 until June 2024 is offered.

Please send your resume and supporting material (videos of teaching situations, performances, etc.) to:

info.fbs@juntadeandalucia.es

Contact information:

Fundación Pública Andaluza Barenboim-Said
Patio de Banderas, 14
41004 Seville (Spain)
Telephone: +34 955 03 73 85

Application deadline: September, 26th 2023.